January 29, 2013

Dr. Lopez would like to guarantee that you have this important information about GRANTS for Leadership Day in Washington DC, to be held on May 21-22, 2013.

The GOOD NEWS is that YES, ACP-AZ has long supported members who wanted to attend, but additionally there is National grant money available. You do, of course, need to apply.

HOWEVER!!

the DEADLINE to apply for those grants is this THURSDAY, January 31st.

Here is the article that will provide all the information you will need to apply!!! (Do it NOW!!)

ACP Leadership Day Grants: Funding Available for Young Physician, Associate, and Medical Student Members to Attend Leadership Day 2013

Twenty-four grants of $750 each will be provided to Chapters to cover young physician, Associate, and medical student members’ expenses to attend Leadership Day 2013, being held May 21-22 in Washington, D.C. This program is funded by a grant provided by Pfizer to support advocacy development for young members. Eight grants are available for young physician members, 8 grants are available for Associate members, and 8 grants are available for medical student members.

The Guidelines for Awarding ACP Leadership Day Grants document contains information about the eligibility, criteria, and process for awarding the grants. To apply for a Leadership Day Grant, members must complete the application and submit it electronically by January 31, 2013. Each $750 grant will be given to the Chapter for the Governor to distribute.

For more information about ACP Leadership Day, see http://capwiz.com/acponline/home/LD. If you have questions about the grant application process, please contact Patty Moore, Governance Relations Coordinator, at pmoore@acponline.org or (800) 523-1546 ext. 2749.

This program replaces the “Joseph E. Johnson” grants previously awarded.

Good luck!!
