

Acute Myocardial Infarction

The electrocardiogram shows sinus rhythm with incomplete right bundle branch block and marked ST-segment elevation with upward convexity in the anterolateral leads and reciprocal ST-segment depression in the inferior leads. The ST-segment elevation is characteristic of ST elevation myocardial infarction (STEMI).