

Dermatitis Herpetiformis

These very itchy, vesicular lesions located on extensor surfaces and over the sacrum are characteristic of dermatitis herpetiformis associated with celiac disease.