

Mucous Patches of Secondary Syphilis

This nonpainful mucocutaneous rash on the hard palate is characteristic of the mucous patches of secondary syphilis. The lesions are extremely contagious.