

Peau d'orange

Characteristic findings associated with inflammatory breast cancer include skin thickening, edema, changes in skin color, enlargement of breast, and enlargement of skin pores (resembling an orange peel).