

Inflammatory Breast Cancer

Note that the right breast is larger than the left, is associated with an inverted nipple, and the inferior portion of the breast is erythematous. These findings are characteristic of inflammatory breast cancer, accounting for approximately 3% of all breast cancers. Figure courtesy of the Inflammatory Breast Cancer Research Foundation.