

FIGO Staging of Cervical Cancer

Stage 1A1

Microscopic cervical cancer which is measured <3 mm depth of invasion and <7 mm horizontal spread

Stage 1A 2

Microscopic cervical cancer with a depth between 3 to 5 mm and <7 mm horizontal spread

Stage 1B1

Microscopic cervical cancer with dimensions >stage 1A2 or any gross lesion <4 cm in width

Stage 1B2

Gross lesion >4 cm in width

Stage 2A

Cervical cancer extending to the upper 2/3 of the vagina

Stage 2B

Cervical cancer extending into the parametrium but not to the pelvic sidewall

Stage 3A

Cervical cancer extending to the lower 1/3 of the vagina

Stage 3B

Cervical cancer extending to the pelvic sidewall and/or causing hydronephrosis

Stage 4A

Cervical cancer extending into the mucosa of the bladder or the rectum

Stage 4B

Cervical cancer with metastatic spread to distant organs

FIGO = International Federation of Gynecology and Obstetrics.

Table from Physicians' Information and Education Resource (PIER), Cervical Cancer module.