

Nodular Melanoma

Nodular melanoma is a darkly pigmented cutaneous malignancy. Typically polypoid in shape, the cancer is uniformly dark lesion with extension of the pigment beyond the nodule into the surrounding skin.