

Dysplastic Nevi

Dysplastic nevi have some characteristics of melanoma. Most are greater than 5 mm in diameter, asymmetric, and have ill defined borders. They often have a flat (macular) shoulder and an elevated (papular) center. Dysplastic nevi are a risk factor for the development of melanoma.