

Sebaceous hyperplasia

Sebaceous hyperplasias are common benign papules located on the face, usually in clusters. They are soft, 2-4 mm yellow papules with central umbilication without telangiectasia.