

Polysomnogram showing the different signals recorded during a typical night. This polysomnogram reveals obstructive apneas, as shown by the absence of flow and ongoing abdominal and rib cage effort that is terminated with evidence of an electroencephalogram arousal.

From MKSAP 13, Pulmonary Medicine and Critical Care.