

Lateral Ligament Testing

Flex the knee to 30 degrees. Place one hand on the medial aspect of the knee while holding the ankle firmly in place. Apply outward pressure on the medial joint while fixing the ankle in position. Compare amount of movement from knee to knee. Excessive movement suggests lateral ligament damage.