

Takayasu's Disease

This is an angiogram of a 25-year-old female with Takayasu's arteritis. It shows a long smooth narrowing of the right subclavian artery characteristic of this disease. This patient had no pulses in the right brachial or radial arteries.