

Tamper-Resistant Prescription Drug Pad Legislation Delayed For Six Months

On Saturday, September 29, President Bush signed legislation (H.R. 3668) to delay for six months the implementation of the tamper-resistance prescription requirement. Originally scheduled for October 1, 2007, the new law postpones implementation until March 31, 2008.

October 1, 2007