Residents and Fellows-in-training – GET INVOLVED IN ACP

Council of Resident/Fellow Member Call for Nominations

ACP seeks residents and fellows-in-training to run for a seat on the ACP Council of Resident/Fellow Members (CRFM). The CRFM is responsible for responding to requests from the Board of Regents, committees and staff for review of programs, products and services, and advising the Board of Regents and Board of Governors on:

- Enhancing the quality of internal medicine postgraduate training
- Increasing the value of membership among Resident/Fellow Member members
- Strengthening chapter level activities and relationships at residency/fellowship training programs
- Aligning council activities with the College’s Strategic Plan

To be eligible to run for a seat on the CRFM you must be an ACP Resident/Fellow member in good standing.

To be an effective Council member you must commit to:

- Serving a two-year term beginning at ACP Internal Medicine Meeting 2015.
- Traveling to ACP Internal Medicine Meetings during your term to participate in CRFM meetings and facilitate Resident/Fellow activities during the meeting. Internal Medicine 2015 will be held in Boston, MA from April 30 through May 2.
- Traveling to Philadelphia once each year for a Council meeting and participating in several additional conference calls/webinars.
- Possibly serving as the Resident/Fellow representative on one of several College committees. Serving on a committee will require at least one additional trip to Philadelphia or Washington, D.C.
- Spending approximately 1-2 hours bimonthly on Council activities.

Open Seats: The Council has several seats open for this election cycle. If you are interested in running for an open seat and are currently in training please follow the submission instructions below.

How to Apply:

Nomination materials must be submitted via e-mail to governance@acponline.org no later than October 31, 2014.

The Council candidate application package should include:

- Curriculum Vitae
- One–page nominating letter written by the candidate
- One letter of support. Only one letter will be considered per candidate and may be from an ACP Regent, Governor, Fellow, Member, or past Council member. If a candidate obtains more than one letter of support, the candidate will be asked to select one for submission.

The Council will conduct elections in November and candidates will be notified of the results in early December. Questions regarding the elections should be sent to ACP staff at governance@acponline.org.
