

PERCENTILE SCORE NORMALIZATION

Percentile indicates what percentage of pre-testers scored lower than you. For example, if your test score (x axis) was 67%, and the corresponding percentile (y axis) is 85%, this would mean that a score of 67% was a better score than 85% of other test-takers.

