

Position Statement on Community Water Fluoridation

Approved by the Board of Regents on February 19, 2026

- 1. ACP recognizes the public health benefit of community water fluoridation as a safe and effective oral health preventive measure and urges policymakers to implement programs to fluoridate public water supplies as needed at levels consistent with the best available evidence.
- 2. ACP supports continued research into the safety and effectiveness of community water fluoridation on health outcomes.