

Atlantic Chapter at CSIM Wrap Up

What an incredible Doctors' Dilemma! Energized by an enthusiastic crowd, the teams from Dalhousie made a valiant stand against the final onslaught from McGill, who ultimately took home the trophy this year.

Dalhousie Team 1 delivered an impressive performance, forming their team and joining the challenge late in the game, while Dalhousie Team 2's bold final wager of 1,000 points nearly carried them across the finish line.

Audience participation was in full swing, correctly answered the bonus question to win the "Got Me Drove" bar, and for identifying Hemiplegic Migraine, the doctor from Halifax fittingly took home the "Oh Me Nerves!" prize.

A huge thank-you to Dr. Chris Grant from Corner Brook for leading the game, and to Dr. Bert Govig for supporting ACP Governor Dr. Sahar Iqbal as arbiter and judge. New friends and old friends alike made it a night to remember!

In the Ophelia Syndrome session, thanks go to Dr. Sharon Card and Dr. Steve Shadowitz for moderating and judging the Ted Giles Vignette Competition. And in the Role of NP session, Dr. Amy Hendricks shone brightly.

Finally, a huge shout-out to the behind-the-camera team: Amanda Gogno from ACP Central, Alyssa Muckleroy (our admin superstar), and our vital CSIM links, Domenica Utano and Zoe Stevens.
