ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

ABOUT GAACP:

The Georgia Chapter of the American College of Physicians (GAACP) is the state's largest medical specialty society.

GAACP has over 3800 members and represents physicians practicing internal medicine. The chapter maintains a special focus on:

- Improving access and quality of care
- Promoting public health and patient safety
- Providing continuing medical education
- Promoting the use of evidence-based practice guidelines

The mission of the American College of Physicians Georgia Chapter is to enhance the quality and effectiveness of healthcare by fostering excellence and professionalism in the practice of medicine. The Georgia Chapter of American College of Physicians vision is to uphold the best traditions and create opportunities for excellence in internal medicine.

Working with medical students, residency training programs, departments of medicine, and individual members across Georgia, the GAACP provides educational opportunities highlighting the latest clinical advances in medicine practice management improvement, and public policy initiatives that promote increased access to care.
