

ART IN MEDICINE: VIOLENCE AS A PREVENTABLE DISEASE

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

For presentation at ACP Resident's and Medical Student's Day 2019
October 23, 2019 • UIC Student Center East

We welcome original submissions displaying intersections between all topic areas of medicine and the arts, but specifically encourage works of art related to the ACP Residents' and Medical Students' Day topic for this year:

Violence as a Preventable Disease. Submissions must be the original work of the author.

Previously published work and work under review by the submitting author will be accepted with appropriate references.

All residents and medical students are invited to submit their artwork.

ORIGINAL ARTWORK

(photographs, graphics, cartoons, drawing, paintings)

Must be submitted as a single PowerPoint™ (.ppt) slide.

VIDEO SUBMISSIONS

(short film, animated shorts, mini-documentary, creative nonfiction)

Must be no more than five minutes long in MP4 format.

AUDIO SUBMISSIONS

(prose, poetry, humor, short story, spoken words, etc.)

Must be no more than five minutes long in MP3 or MP4 format.

Submissions Open: Monday, July 15, 2019
Submission Deadline: Friday, August 23, 2019

Please submit your request and any related questions via email to MWUeducation@gmail.com and write "ACP Humanities" in the subject line.
