2. Each person may submit no more than one abstract to each category, with a maximum of two total submissions (e.g., may submit one to Clinical Vignette and one to Patient Safety/QI category, or any other combination of two categories).
3. If your abstract is accepted to be judged you will be given instructions on how to upload your media links.
4. Abstract guidelines and additional abstract resources can be found on the College's website:
http://www.acponline.org/education_recertification/education/program_directors/abstracts/#chapter

5. ACP Indiana will accept 20-26 posters. Abstracts falling into a lower acceptance pool will be accepted as an abstract or e-poster to be displayed on ACP Indiana Website.
6. The first author of the abstract must be an ACP member, and a medical student or RFM at an Indiana medical school or internal medicine residency currently enrolled in a program. Faculty cannot serve as first authors as the primary purpose of this activity is to showcase resident/student scholarly activity.
7. Original abstracts that either have or have not been presented at other meetings (including ACP chapters/Regions) will be considered. Abstracts previously submitted to the National Meeting are not eligible and are subject to disqualification.
8. Presentation of original work at the ACP meeting may, however, jeopardize presentation before another society. Abstracts are eligible if they have been published; however, the resident should notify the journal that the material is being presented at the ACP Chapter meeting.

ABSTRACTS ARE DUE BY August 23, 2020 (NO LATE ENTRIES)
