

Connect. Empower. Lead.

Are you a woman in Medicine looking for connection and opportunities for growth?

Join our Women in Medicine Committee — a community created to inspire and empower women across all stages of their medical careers.

Our Mission:

To foster a supportive environment that promotes mentorship, leadership, equity and well-being for women in medicine.

- Connect with other physicians for collegiality, advocacy and mentorship
- Support peers in professional and personal responsibilities
- Advocate for issues of particular interest to women professionals

All physicians are welcome- Medical students, residents, faculty, retirees, and allies who support women in medicine

Commitment: We meet three to four times a year. You can help plan and execute goals for meetings and events—no leadership experience needed.

Committee Leadership

Nargiz Muganlinskaya, MD, FACP, Co-chair
Asha Thomas, MD, FACP, Co-Chair
