

Axe Throwing with JHU SOM & University of Maryland SOM Internal Medicine Interest Groups

The JHUSOM and University of Maryland SOM internal medicine interest groups are AXEcited to share this AXEceptional event!

Time of Event: Sunday November 17th, 5-7:30 pm

Event Address: Urban Axes, 1 North Haven St. Baltimore, MD 21224

Come socialize with other students also interested in internal medicine while testing out your throwing arm. The Maryland ACP has graciously offered to cover half of the costs, so the first 10 students from each school to sign up will receive 2 1/2 hours of axe throwing for just $20 each! Please sign up using this google form:

Here is a description of what you can AXEpect:

"Our Axeperts™ will start with 1 on 1 coaching to get everyone throwing safely and comfortably.

After training, you will play round-robin matches to hone your skills before our Axeperts lead you through a friendly tournament to crown an axe throwing champion!"

We will contact those of you who sign up in time to confirm that you'll be attending!

On behalf of the internal medicine interest group,
