Triaging Financial Priorities for Early Career Docs: How to Get Your Financial House in Order

Wednesday, January 10, 2024 • 7:00PM

Complimentary for all MI-ACP members.

A discussion on Early Career Financial Priorities from National ACP Council of Early Career Physicians Chair-Elect, Amy Holbrook, MD, FACP. This talk is specifically focused on physicians within 16 years of medical school graduation, but Dr. Holbrook's financial insights will be valuable for all members.

Amy Holbrook, MD, FACP is an Associate Program Director at the Abbott Northwestern Internal Medicine Residency Program in Minneapolis, MN. She is also an Adjunct Associate Professor for the University of Minnesota and is the Director of Medical Student Education at Abbott Northwestern. Her clinical practice includes both inpatient and outpatient general internal medicine. She is the Chair-Elect for the National ACP Council of Early Career Physicians, where she serves on the Ethics, Professionalism and Human Rights Committee. Her professional interests include student and resident education, physician wellness, and financial planning for early career physicians. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her 4- and 7-year-old sons and enjoying all the seasons in Minnesota.

Hosted by the MI-ACP Early Career Physicians Committee
