1/11/23 Anti-Blackness Why are we this way in healthcare?
A candid conversation and workshop where we challenge inherent biases within the healthcare system and why the system and people within the system harm Black people. We will dive deep into behaviors that harm healthcare for Black people in a space where they do not have healthcare providers that look like them.

3/01/23 Anti-Blackness: How can we approach healthcare to benefit Black patients?
A follow-up with tools and activities on how we can disrupt healthcare to benefit Black people. Why disrupting the system to benefit Black people benefits everyone.
