Meeting Highlights

- Arm the primary care provider with an efficient, practical, evidence-based approach to orthopedic problems
- Injection techniques
- Physical exam tools
- Imaging studies: Appropriateness criteria and cost effectiveness
- When to refer patients to an ortho specialist
- To enable all participants to evaluate and manage orthopedic conditions with confidence and expertise

Dear Colleague,

The third ACP Colorado Ortho Day Meeting will be held on September 10, 2016.

We are excited to announce the addition of a special educational day devoted to learning and reviewing the orthopedic examination for internists, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, medical students, and residents. Those of you who have learned from Dr. Parks know that he is a dedicated and extremely popular teacher, and we are thrilled that he will be providing instruction on how to manage common musculoskeletal concerns.

Please take this opportunity to brush up on your knowledge and to spend the day with colleagues.

Sincerely,

Christie Reimer, MD, FACP
ACP Governor, Colorado Chapter

Meeting Information

Faculty

Edward (Ted) Parks, MD, Clinical Professor of Medicine, Department of Medicine, University of Colorado School of Medicine; Orthopedic Surgeon, Western Orthopedics PC, Denver

Ted Parks is an orthopedic surgeon who has spent the past twenty years in collaboration with the ACP and the internal medicine department at the University of Colorado to develop a curriculum centered around teaching orthopedics to primary care providers. He is an annual speaker at the regional and national level for the ACP, and has won numerous teaching awards. For over 15 years, he has been selected by the University of Colorado Internal Medicine department to teach internal medicine residents during their one month orthopedics rotation. He has been awarded "Best Doctor" by U.S. News and World Report, and "Top Doctor" 15 years in a row by Denver's 5280 magazine. Dr Parks graduated from Stanford with a BS and MS, and then got his medical degree at Yale. He went on to do his residency at UCLA and did a 1-year fellowship in sports medicine with Dr. Frank Noyes in Cincinnati.
