

Dear Colleague:

I recently learned that your membership in the American College of Physicians will expire in February because your dues are not current. As Interim Governor of your local ACP chapter, I urge you to remain an active member of our community of internists and renew your membership online.

Membership in the College offers a network of 152,000 internists, world-class educational resources, highly regarded scientific programs, and comprehensive publications like Annals of Internal Medicine that help you to provide the best possible care for your patients. ACP also offers extensive assistance with maintenance of certification and practice management, advocacy at the local and national levels, and exclusive members-only discounts. For a complete listing of member benefits, visit ACP Online at www.acponline.org/benefits.

In addition, our Bangladesh Chapter holds an excellent scientific meeting offering educational sessions and a place to connect with your colleagues. For more information, visit our chapter Web site at www.acponline.org/chapters and click on the link for Bangladesh.

Please remain a member of ACP. You can easily renew your membership online call Customer Service at 800-ACP-1915 (M-F, 9 a.m.–5 p.m. ET) and pay the current year's dues. Your unpaid dues for the prior year will be waived.

I hope that you will remain a member of ACP and our Bangladesh Chapter!

Sincerely,

Quazi Tarikul Islam, MD, FCPS, FACP, FRCP(Glasg & Edin)
ACP Interim Governor, Bangladesh Chapter
