

An Invitation from the American College of Physicians for International Membership

Advancing knowledge in internal medicine around the world.

The American College of Physicians has over 13,000 members in more than 140 countries outside the United States. ACP members share a common dedication to excellence and professionalism in the practice of internal medicine and its subspecialties.

ACP Membership benefits include: Free access to valuable resources, including:

- Annals of Internal Medicine, the world's leading journal focusing on internal medicine that includes ACP Journal Club and In the Clinic. Online and mobile access available.
- DynaMed Plus, a leading evidence-based, point-of-care clinical reference tool, is a comprehensive resource with overviews and recommendations for more than 750 topics; 2,500 searchable images; and numerous calculators, therapy, and more.
- ACP JournalWise®, online and optimized for mobile use, alerts you to the highest-quality, most clinically relevant new articles in specialty areas at a frequency that you select.

Substantial member discounts on:

- Medical Knowledge Self-Assessment Program® (MKSAP®), the foremost educational program to keep your knowledge up to date in all specialties of internal medicine. It provides 1,200 challenging multiple-choice questions, critiques, and key points and is an indispensable resource for clinical reference, preparation for high-stakes exams, and continuing medical education.
- Registration for Internal Medicine Meeting 2017, offering more than 200 scientific sessions to over 8,000 physicians. Join us in San Diego, CA, March 30–April 1, 2017. Register early and SAVE! Group discounts are also available.

Plus, the opportunity to achieve ACP Fellowship (FACP) after two years of membership.
