Dear Alabama Chapter members/spouses/guests:

2015's Alabama Chapter, ACP Literature and Medicine Retreat is just around the corner and will be held at the Renaissance Hotel, Montgomery, AL beginning Friday evening, January 23, through Sunday morning, January 25, 2015. Professor Randy Davis will again facilitate the discussions. The reading selections for next year are:

Novel: Ahab's wife, by Sena Jeter Naslund
Short stories: A History of the Present Illness, by Louise Aronson
Play: A streetcar named Desire, by Tennessee Williams
Poetry: collected Earlier Poems, by Anthony Hecht, (just the first section-The Hard Hours)

Friday evening - 7:30 pm - we will watch the film "Blue jasmine" by woody Allen
Structure of the meeting will be much as before. Dinner will be as a group on Saturday evening with details to follow at the Retreat. Lunch Saturday will again be "on your own" and several restaurants are within walking distance of the meeting hotel.

To make your room reservations, call direct to the Renaissance Hotel, 201 Tallapoosa St, toll free at 877-545-0311 and ask for the "American College of Physicians, Alabama chapter, group room block. Please identify yourself as an attendee of the ACP Alabama Chapter Literature and Medicine Retreat so that we will receive credit for your occupying your room at the hotel. Room rate and meeting registration will be same as last year. Group dinner cost is included in your registration fee.

If you purchase your books online, make sure to check different sites as prices will vary. Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Alibris, and Abebooks will be ones to check and any others that you know or use.

To register, please use the attached registration form. Call the AL ACP office if you have any questions or call me direct at 334-262-1572 or my email at billwboyd@aol.com.

I look forward to seeing everyone again early next year. I hope you enjoy the reading.
Bill W. Boyd, MD, FACP
