c6 Leadership

c3 vs. c6: What's the Difference?

- The California Regional Chapters are not-for-profit 501(c3) corporations dedicated to education and supporting member activities.
- The California Services Chapter of the American College of Physicians (CA ACP) is a not-for-profit 501(c6) corporation with the sole purpose of promoting advocacy on behalf of all California Regional Chapters.

MAIN DIFFERENCES

c3 vs c6

ACP 501 (c3)

- Purpose: Charitable, Educational, Scientific, Foundations
- Benefit to the public
- Donations are tax deductible
- Very limited political lobbying allowed
- Eligible for grants
- Must limit activities to specified cause

ACP 501 (c6)

- Purpose: Trade organizations or group of professionals with related business interests
- Benefits to the organization's members
- Dues and donations are tax deductible but only as business expense
- Political lobbying allowed that is related to member interests
- Not eligible for federal grants
- Members must have common business interest

How do I Benefit from the (c6)?

- A portion of your chapter dues ($25 per year) goes to support the activities of the c6
- What types of activities are supported?
 - Sacramento and Washington Leadership Days
 - Lobbying to advance legislation impacting CA ACP
 - Collaborating with California Medical Association (CMA)
 - Engaging Early Career and trainees in advocacy and leadership

Your Role as An Advocate In Medicine

- It's Simple and Not Time Consuming
- As key issues approach the decision-making stage on Capitol Hill, the College distributes legislative alerts to ACP members. Legislative alerts include all the necessary information (including sample messages that can be easily personalized) to make informative contacts with members of Congress.
- ACP staff is always available to provide support and answer legislative questions.

CA ACP's Continued Vision for the Future

- Increase value to membership through state and national advocacy reflecting your voice
- Provide more interactive forums for our members
- Continue supporting participation by medical students, associates and early career physicians
- Continued collaboration with other health and policy related organizations
- Ensure the continued fiscal stability of CA ACP by maintaining a corporate reserve account invested
- Recruit and mentor new leadership
