Exhibitor Terms & Conditions:

1. SECURITY- Security will not be provided in the exhibit area. Exhibitors are urged to remove all valuables during non-exhibit hours. Exhibitor agrees that neither the GA ACP nor the facility management is financially liable for theft, damage, loss or disappearance of any kind. The GA ACP recommends all exhibitors contact their insurance agents to confirm proper coverage of exhibit materials. Please read carefully the coverage provided by decorators and shipping companies to determine if additional coverage is necessary. Any additional security must be arranged by the exhibitor at his own expense, directly from the facility. The facility will be locked during the time exhibits are not being shown; however, certain facility employees will have access to the space for cleaning, etc.

2. LIABILITY– The exhibitor agrees that neither the GA ACP nor its representatives, will be responsible for any injury, loss or damage that occur to the exhibitor, the exhibitor’s employees, family, associates or property from any cause whatsoever. The exhibitor, on signing the contract, expressly releases the aforementioned from any and all claims for such loss, damage or injury.

3. CANCELLATIONS– Cancellations by 8/31/18 will receive a 50% refund. No refunds provided for cancellations after that date.

4. ELECTRICITY– The GA ACP will provide standard 110-volt electricity at no charge upon request. Please indicate on the prospectus if electricity is required. For additional power needs, exhibitors should contact the facility.

5. SHIPPING– Exhibitors are responsible for ALL arrangements in the shipping of exhibits. Please bring your companies own shipping forms and account numbers in order to make your own shipping arrangements. Shipping information will be sent with the confirmation to the “company contact” listed on the prospectus.
ABOUT GAACP:

The Georgia Chapter of the American College of Physicians (GAACP) is the state’s largest medical specialty society.

GAACP has over 3500 members and represents physicians practicing internal medicine. The chapter maintains a special focus on:

- improving access and quality of care;
- promoting public health and patient safety;
- providing continuing medical education; and
- promoting the use of evidence-based practice guidelines

The mission of the GAACP is to enhance the quality and effectiveness of healthcare by fostering excellence and professionalism in the practice of medicine. We share a vision with the American College of Physicians to uphold the best traditions and create opportunities for excellence in internal medicine.

Working with medical students, residency training programs, Departments of Medicine, and individual members across Georgia, the GAACP provides educational opportunities highlighting the latest clinical advances in medicine practice management improvement, and public policy initiatives that promote increased access to care.
