CMS proposed Physician Fee Schedule Changes
Webinar Aug 22 — register at link below

CMS
Proposed changes to the CY 2019 Physician Fee Schedule would increase the amount of time doctors and other clinicians spend with their patients by reducing the burden of Medicare paperwork. During this listening session, CMS experts will briefly cover three provisions from the proposed rule and address your clarifying questions to help you formulate your written comments for formal submission. It’s National Relaxation Day: 4 ways to relax at your office

Good Morning America

Wednesday is National Relaxation Day. "Good Morning America" turned to two experts for tips on how to relax while you’re at work. The good news is that relaxation doesn't mean you have to lay down on a couch or take a nap, two things that would turn heads in the office. "Simply plopping on the couch doesn’t address the long-held tension in your body," said Jillian Pransky, author of "Deep Listening" and a mindfulness teacher and certified yoga therapist. "True relaxation, conscious relaxation... creates a sense of space, ease, in our body and mind so that we can better handle the daily stressors that arise." [READ MORE]

Physicians are 'perfectly constructed' to burn out

Healio

The intrinsic personality traits of the physician lay the foundation for burnout, according to an expert speaking at GI Outlook. The internal drive for perfection, lifetime rewards for overwork and need to surpass outside markers for success can quickly push a physician past a healthy mental state. [READ MORE]
