How to maximize your EHR use to succeed in MIPS: Advice for solo and small group practices
Georgia Health Information Technology Extension Center

Using your electronic health records system to its fullest potential can help streamline your processes, maximize time and resources and assist in achieving a better MIPS score. Solo practitioners and small group practices have limited time for mastering these systems but understanding how to effectively use them can make your practice more efficient and benefit your patients. This event will help everyone participating understand what your EHR can do for you and how to leverage it to maximize your MIPS score. This event will feature a panel of experts that understand MIPS and work regularly with clinicians and their EHRs. READ MORE

Compass PTN Annual Learning Community Meeting
Compass Practice Transformation Network

Dear Colleagues:
You can still register for the Compass Practice Transformation Network Annual Learning Community Meeting, we hope to see you at the upcoming event. With the release of the 2018 Merit-Incentive Payment System Performance Feedback report, physicians are looking for resources and evidence-based protocols to enhance their clinical practice and health processes, outcomes and patient care experiences. At the Compass PTN Annual Learning Community meeting, you will receive information on how to better your MIPS scores. READ MORE

A Georgia nonprofit looks to market telehealth to rural America
mHealthIntelligence

The Georgia-based Global Partnership for Telehealth doesn’t think the commercial telehealth market is helping rural and remote providers. So the group created its own connected health platform. READ MORE

Atlanta's oldest hospital; St Joseph's Hospital
The 100 Companies

Atlanta’s oldest and only Catholic hospital was established in 1880 by Sister Cecilia Carroll, who, along with three other nuns, moved from Savannah to Atlanta with the hopes of opening the city’s first permanent medical facility after the Civil War. Saint Joseph’s, originally named Atlanta Hospital, opened a nursing school in 1900, where more than 1,300 nurses were trained before its closing in 1973. The hospital soon became the region’s largest hospital and moved to north Atlanta in 1978. READ MORE
