

2021 ACP Hawaii Chapter Abstract Competition Winners

Congratulations to this year's abstract competition winners!

Many thanks to all those who presented and judged making this year's competition a success!

Category	Author	Title
Resident Research First Place	Aaron Brown	Extraperitoneal Bladder Rupture Presenting as a Pseudo-Acute Kidney Injury
Resident Research Second Place	Yue Fang	A Case of Afebrile Weil's Disease: Protean Manifestations Without the Hallmark of Infection
Resident Research Third Place	Jean Kim	Subclinical Hypothyroidism Is Associated with Hypertension in Women: A Systemic Review and Meta-Analysis
Student Research First Place	Brendan Seto	Causally Observed: Evaluating the Methodology of Large, Non-Randomized HCQ Studies
Student Research Second Place	Mathew Kobylnski	The novel association of DNA viruses with Helicobacter pylori in gastric carcinogenesis
Student Research Third Place	Michael Meno	TELEHEALTH AMID THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC: PERCEPTION OF ASIAN, NATIVE HAWAIIAN, AND PACIFIC ISLANDER CANCER PATIENTS
Student Research Third Place	Robert Mun	Culturally Considered Care and the Underestimation of Disease Burden Among Native Hawaiian Diabetes Mellitus Patients
Top Resident Case Report	Victoria Mank	Cardiac Manifestations of Systemic Lupus Erythematosus
Top Student Case Report	Jessica Shiosaki	Serum Diagnosis of Early Colorectal Cancer in a Multiethnic Cohort