

Dear Colleagues,

I know many of you are involved in great projects throughout Idaho to improve patient care.

Please consider submitting your projects to National ACP for consideration in the competition described below using their words.

"ACP Internal Medicine Meeting 2017, being held March 30-April 1 in San Diego, CA, will be hosting the Dragon's Lair Competition-the second "Shark Tank"- themed competition where finalists will present their projects to a distinguished panel of judges in front of a live audience. Project ideas may be submitted by physicians or medical students and should focus on transforming clinical practice. A Grand Prize winner will receive $7,500 in funding for project development and an Audience Choice prize of $2,500 will also be awarded. All finalists are eligible to receive complimentary meeting registration and travel funds to attend ACP Internal Medicine Meeting 2017.

For additional information and to submit an application by the December 30, 2016 deadline, please see <https://leadership.acponline.org/hot-topic-page/acp-dragon-s-lair-competition-breathing-fire-health-care-transformation>.

Please feel free to distribute the attached flyer to anyone who may have a project eligible for submission.

For questions regarding this event, contact Joanne Ey (je@acponline.org).

Thank you for considering.

-Moe

Melissa (Moe) Hagman, MD, FACP

Governor, Idaho

American College of Physicians

Cell 208-695-9827