Practical Skills for Patient and Policy Advocacy

Interested in learning more about how Internal Medicine physicians can be advocates? Join students, residents, and faculty to explore the many exciting paths available, and meet others interested in the field.

Join us for a keynote and round table discussions on topics including universal healthcare, gun violence, Housing First, food as medicine, the opioid epidemic, and how primary care and internal medicine physicians can advocate for social change.

Wednesday, February 26th from 6:00-7:30pm in the Minot Room (Room 506) of Countway Library, 10 Shattuck Street, Boston, MA 02115.

Dinner will be served.

RSVP: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/GIM2020