Meeting Highlights

- Expanded poster sessions
- Education Stations targeted for students and residents, with brief concentrations in areas including social media, diversity, mentorship, matching, advocacy, research, and more
- Doctor’s Dilemma®
- Thieves Market
- Health System Recruiters On-Site

Dear students, residents, fellows and early career physicians,

I am excited to share with you an opportunity to get recognized for your scholarly work at a meeting specifically tailored to meet your needs. I hope you will join us at the upcoming Nebraska Chapter of the American College of Physicians poster competition being held on Saturday, October 19, at the CHI Health Creighton University Medical Center–Bergan Mercy.

By participating, you will be able to share your work while connecting with your peers and “speed dating” your way through brief education stations focused on hot topics such as social media, diversity and mentorship.

This is also an important opportunity to make personal contacts and get involved in your chapter. You’ll engage with people who know your challenges and can help you find solutions. This experience will help you build upon the success you’ve already achieved, while enriching your path going forward.

To ensure your place at this invaluable meeting, register now by visiting us online at nechapter.acponline.org.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Marvin J. Bittner, MD, FACP
ACP Governor, Nebraska Chapter
