

INVITATION TO SUBMIT NOMINATIONS FOR OHIO ACP AWARDS

Date: March 4, 2019

To: All Ohio ACP Masters/Fellows/Members

From: Debra S. Leizman, MD, FACP, Chair, Awards Committee

Re: 2019 Ohio ACP Awards Nominations

On behalf of our Governor, Michael J. Tan, MD, FACP and the Ohio Chapter's Awards Committee, I would like to invite all Masters, Fellows, and Members of the Chapter to submit nominations for the Chapter's 2019 Awards to be presented at the fall Ohio/Air Force Chapter Scientific Meeting in Columbus, Ohio.

- Laureate Award
- Master Teacher Award
- Volunteer Award
- Internist of the Year Award

The criteria for nominations plus prior award recipients are attached. We encourage you to consider colleagues and mentors as potential award recipients. Please submit all nominations by either electronic mail to our chapter's Executive Director, Jan Wrassman at jwrassman.acpohio@gmail.com or mail nominations to 2684 Devils Backbone Road, Cincinnati, OH 45233. Electronic mail is preferable but we will also accept overland mail. Jan will compile and forward this information to the awards committee for review.

Completed nominations should include the following documents:

- Nominating Letter
- Seconding Letter
- Recently Updated Curriculum Vitae of the Nominee

Nominations must be received by end of day, May 31, 2019.

If you have any questions about the nominations process or the appropriateness of a nomination, please feel free to contact Jan or me by e-mail at debra.leizman@case.edu.

Thank you!

• OHIO CHAPTER AWARDS CRITERIA

THE JAMES S. TAN, MD, MACP LAUREATE AWARD

Description: This award honors those Fellows or Masters of the American College of Physicians in Ohio who have demonstrated by their example and conduct an abiding commitment to excellence in medical care, education, or research and in service to their community and the American College of Physicians.

1. Master or Fellow of the American College of Physicians for at least 15 (fifteen) years.
2. Must be an exemplary physician involved in patient care.
3. Must be a role model for younger physicians and house staff
4. Must be recognized as a helpful consultant.
5. Must be active in local teaching activities.
6. Must be involved in services and activities in the American College of Physicians.
7. Academic performance and publication is not necessarily a principle characteristic to be sought for this award.
8. The awardee is to be nominated by a process that can originate from the Awards Committee or from any member of the Ohio Chapter, American College of Physicians. The nomination must document the personal attributes and accomplishments of the Master or Fellow being nominated.
9. Current Curriculum Vitae of the nominee.
10. Letter of proposal from an ACP member who knows the nominee well.
11. Seconding letter from an ACP member who knows the nominee well.

THE EVELYN V. HESS, MD, MACP MASTER TEACHER AWARD

Description: This award is to recognize Master Teachers of Medicine who have been active in teaching medical students, residents, and/or peers. The award is different from that of the Laureate Award which has as its emphasis on excellence in exemplary practice, consultation, and advice and support of colleagues.

1. Master or Fellow of American College of Physicians.
2. Documented 10 (ten) years of teaching beyond the nominee's completion of training.
3. Recognized as an outstanding teacher/educator by students, residents and/or peers.
4. Nominations must come from one of the following:
 1. a. Chair of the Department of Medicine of one of Ohio's medical schools.
 - b. Program Director of one of Ohio's Internal Medicine or Medicine-Pediatrics Residency Programs.
 - c. Director of Medical Education/Designated Institutional Official of an Ohio hospital.
5. Current Curriculum Vitae of the nominee.
6. Letter of proposal from an ACP member (or Associate Member) who knows the nominee well. This letter of proposal may be from the person nominating the candidate.
7. Seconding letter from an ACP member (or Associate Member) who knows the nominee well.

VOLUNTEERISM AND COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Description: The Ohio Chapter Volunteerism and Community Service Award was developed to recognize the work of ACP members who are involved in volunteerism and community service activities. This award also enables the chapter to raise the level of awareness and promote dialogue and action in volunteerism within the State of Ohio. Volunteerism, like a commitment to continuing education, is an established tradition for internist.

1. Master, Fellow or Member of the Ohio ACP. Self-nominations are not permitted.
2. The services must have been performed on a voluntary basis and not as part of the requirements for completion of training, or as part of the duties of a paid position of the nominee.
3. Volunteer work must have been done as a physician and must be medically related.
4. Brief biographical sketch and contact information for the nominee.
5. Current Curriculum Vitae of the nominee.
6. Nominating letter from an ACP member, fellow or master that provides a detailed description of the impact that the volunteer program or activity has had on the target group or the general community.
7. One or two letters of support besides that of the nominating physician may significantly strengthen the nomination. These letters may be provided by persons not affiliated with the ACP who are extremely familiar with the physician nominee in the course of the performance of the nominee's volunteer activity.

INTERNIST OF THE YEAR AWARD

Description: This award seeks to honor an internist considered to be a role model by his/her peers. Nominees should possess excellent clinical skills, dedication to patients, enthusiasm for medical practice, leadership, and the ability to maintain humanity and a healthy balance between professional and personal interests that we can all strive to emulate. Internists who have championed innovations in practice to promote healthy patient behaviors will be given special consideration.

1. Fellow or Master of the American College of Physicians or similar credentials.
2. General internist or subspecialist.
3. Has been in clinical practice or teaching setting more than 20 years.
4. Has distinguished him/herself in his/her local or regional communities in one or more of the missions of the ACP including: a. Clinical practice; b. Teaching; c. Research; d. Administration; e. Professionalism; f. Service to the community
5. Curriculum Vitae of the nominee.
6. Two supporting letters from physician members of the Ohio ACP. These letters should be from people who know the Nominee well and can attest to the effectiveness of the nominee in furthering the Mission of the American College of Physician.
