Ohio Chapter

April 15, 2022

Dear Exhibitor:

After two years of virtual meetings, the Ohio Chapter of the American College of Physicians will be holding its annual Scientific Session on Thursday, October 20, 2022 through Friday, October 21, 2022 in person at the Greater Columbus Convention Center in Columbus, Ohio. Our average attendance includes over 300 Internal Medicine and subspecialist physicians, residents, and students. Physicians are from academic, hospital and private-practice settings.

We are extending an invitation for your organization to exhibit at our meeting.

Based on previous years' participation, we are offering two options for exhibitors:

Thursday and Friday ($1500): Display table Thursday and Friday, lunch Thursday, breakfast and lunch Friday, and invitation to the Awards Reception Thursday evening.

Friday only ($1000): Display table Friday, breakfast and lunch Friday.

To reserve your exhibit table, please contact Jan Wrassman, Executive Director, at jwrassman.acpohio@gmail.com or 513-678-0057 as soon as possible.

We hope you will be able to join us. Industry support is greatly appreciated, and we know many physicians will enjoy visiting the displays during the course of the meeting.

Best regards,

Craig D. Nielsen, MD, FACP
