Dear Colleague,

Join me and your colleagues in internal medicine at the next scientific meeting of the Oregon Chapter of the American College of Physicians, being held November 2–4, 2017, at the Salem Convention Center.

The meeting is a great way for you to recharge, rewind, and reflect with your peers, chapter leaders, and great speakers. Connect with the Oregon Chapter’s rich source of knowledge content and networking by attending our premier meeting for general internists, subspecialty internists, hospitalists, allied health practitioners, residents, and medical students.

In addition to earning CME credits, this conference is about making personal contacts and getting involved in your chapter. You’ll engage with people who know your challenges and can help you find solutions. The opportunities available at this meeting will help you meet not only your needs as a physician, but also the needs of the patients you serve.

To ensure your place at this invaluable meeting, register now by visiting us online at orchapter.acponline.org.

I look forward to seeing you in Salem.

Sincerely,

Marianne Parshley, MD, FACP
ACP Governor, Oregon Chapter

Resident/Fellow Members’ and Medical Students’ Activities

Posters prepared by Resident Members and Medical Students will be presented at the meeting for the local ACP Chapter Competition. Winners will receive prizes and be eligible for entrance into the ACP National Competition held during Internal Medicine Meeting 2018. Posters will be judged on Thursday evening, November 2. Posters will be on display until Saturday afternoon after lunch. On Thursday evening, following the poster judging, Residents from Oregon training programs will present oral presentations just following dinner. Please sign up to attend this dinner.

Contact Mary Olhausen at omary52@comcast.net for more information about entering the local ACP Chapter Competition.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

• Apply updated knowledge of internal medicine to clinical practice.
• Improve clinical practice by incorporating major new developments in subspecialty medicine.
• Understand recent advances in internal medicine.
• Increase confidence in performing clinical skills.

Who should attend?

• General internists
• Subspecialty internists
• Family practitioners
• Fellows in subspecialty training
• Hospitalists
• Allied health practitioners
• Residents
• Medical students interested in internal medicine

Chapter Awards

It is with distinct pleasure that the Oregon Chapter honors individuals for distinguished teaching and service to the profession of medicine. These individuals uphold the high ideals and professional standards for which the College is known. These awards will be presented during the luncheon on Friday, November 2, 2017.

CME Accreditation and MOC Points

The American College of Physicians is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Physicians designates this live activity for a maximum of 15.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 15.5 MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine’s (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider’s responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.
