2017 PA-ACP Eastern Abstract Poster and Doctor's Dilemma Winners

We are pleased to announce the winners of the 2017 ACP Pennsylvania Chapter Eastern Region Annual Abstract Competition and Doctor’s Dilemma® Competition held at PinnacleHealth Hospital on Saturday, October 28, 2017.

Abstracts were evaluated on scientific merit, originality, presentation and clinical application.

2017 Poster Competition Winners

Category: Vignette

1st Place
Joseph Moran, DO
Lehigh Valley Hospital
"AMPA-Rantibody Positive Autoimmune Encephalitis: An under recognized cause of acute mental status changes"

2nd Place
David Ochs, DO
Lehigh Valley Hospital
"Leukemia Cutis: Identifying malignancies that appear only skin deep"

3rd Place
Jack Fatica - Med Student
Penn State Hershey Medical Center
"New-onset Premenstrual Psychosis in an Adolescent: A Case Report"

Categories: Research; Quality Improvement/Patient Safety; High Value Care

1st Place
Cameron Incognito-Med Student
Penn State Hershey Medical Center
"Impact of Palliative Care Consultations on End-of-Life Care Outcomes in the Intensive Care Unit: A retrospective analysis"

2nd Place
Steven Cardio, MD
St. Luke's Hospital
"Focused Improvement in Abdominal Aortic Aneurysm Screening Practices in a Resident-Driven Clinic Setting"

3rd Place
Munish Sharma, MD
Easton Hospital
"Role of cardiovascular implantable electronic devices in delivering individualized disease-guided approach to management of patients with non-valvular atrial fibrillation and high bleeding risk"

2017 Doctor's Dilemma Winning Team

Left to right: From Reading Health System - Pragya Shrestha, MD; Niranjan Tachamo, MD; Sijan Basnet; Team Advisor, Anthony Donoto, MD