Congratulations to our winners of the Student/Resident/Fellow competition at our chapter meeting in Charleston! All of the participants did an outstanding job with unusual patient cases and elegant research.

And the winners are:

Students

Over all Student Winner – Tamara Van de Star, MS – Greenville Hospital System
"Scimitar syndrome presenting as pulmonary hypertension in 87 year old" Poster

First Place Research Poster – Laura Haselden, MS – Medical University of South Carolina
"Predictors of Weight Perception Accuracy among Obese Children and Adolescents" Research Abstract

First Place Clinical Vignette Oral – Samantha Minkin, MS – Medical University of South Carolina
"Calciphylaxis: A Case Report"

Residents

Oral Clinical Vignette

First Place - Richard O’Neal, MD – Greenville Hospital System
"A Case of Levamisole Induced Necrosis Syndrome"

Second Place – Lee Day, MD – University of South Carolina School of Medicine
"Point of Care Ultrasound in the Diagnosis of Graves' Disease"

Third Place – Justin Heizer, MD, – Medical University of South Carolina
"Capnocytophagia Infection in an Asplenia Patient"

Poster Clinical Vignette

Overall Resident Winner – Rebecca Burnside, MD – University of South Carolina School of Medicine
"Point of Care Hand-Held Ultrasound in the Ambulatory Setting to Evaluate Shortness of Breath and Chest Pain"

Second Place – Ryan Porter, MD – Greenville Hospital System
"Treat, Pray, Love: Assessing Patients’ Perspectives of Spiritual, Social, and Educational Health Needs"

Third Place – Kevin Baker, MD, Medical University of South Carolina
"A Sight for Sore Eyes"

Poster Research

First Place – Stephen Carey, DO – Greenville Hospital System
"Assessing Whether a Support Group for Diabetes will affect Clinical Endpoints"

Second Place – Bernadette Wood, MD – Greenville Hospital System
"Implementing A Community Based Physical Activity Program In A Low Income Internal Medicine Primary Care Residents' Clinic"

Third Place – Maximilien Rappaport, DO – Greenville Hospital System
"Improving Quality Of In-Hospital Cardiac Arrests Through Multi-Disciplinary Supplementary Training In Addition To Standard Acts Training"
Oral Research

First Place – Nicole Gammon, MD – Greenville Hospital System
"Antibiotic Awareness: Educating Patients About Upper Respiratory Tract Infections And The Appropriate Use Of Antibiotics"

Second Place – Maximilien Rappaport, DO – Greenville Hospital System
"Telephone Based Diabetes Management Of Uncontrolled Type 2 Diabetics"

Third Place – Gretchen Junko, DO – Greenville Hospital System
"Targeting Non-Adherence With Colorectal Cancer Pre-Screening Appointments Using Nurse Navigation"