

Washington ACP Golden Apple Award

Scott Stuart, MD

- Scott has single handedly transformed his clerkship site into a favored rotation for medical students doing internal medicine.
- By teaching lectures, rounding with the students on his off weeks as a hospitalist, and striving for all of us to improve our intellectual curiosity, he has achieved teaching excellence!

Washington ACP Community Service Award

Rachel Safran, MD

- Dr. Safran has for years now volunteered her vacation time to be one of the medical supervisors at Camp Stix - a summer camp for children with diabetes.
- Her commitment to this volunteerism is unparalleled and for the past few years she has involved residents and students in this amazing volunteer opportunity.
- She deserves to be recognized for this amazing work.
