ACP does not support this measure because the specifications do not define validated admission rates and admission prevention methods for patients with chronic diseases. Additionally, the measure should list specific diseases rather than combining all chronic diseases under a single definition.

Date Reviewed: November 7, 2015