

Performance Measure Review

ACP supports QPP measure 008: “Heart Failure: Beta-blocker therapy for Left Ventricular Systolic Dysfunction” because the balance of evidence shows that long-term treatment with beta-blockers can lessen the symptoms of heart failure, improve the clinical status of patients, and enhance the patient’s overall sense of well-being. Furthermore, the measure aligns with current guidelines and represents high-value care for patients with chronic heart failure.