

ACP does not support NQF 0399: "Hepatitis C: Hepatitis A Vaccination" because it does not align with the relevant ACIP clinical guideline. The guideline states, "Available data do not indicate a need for routine [Hepatitis A] vaccination of persons with chronic HBV or HCV infections without evidence of chronic liver disease," but the performance measure calls for the vaccination of all persons diagnosed with Hepatitis C.

Date Reviewed: July 26, 2014