ACP does not support PQRS 161: “HIV/AIDS: Adolescent and Adult Patients who are Prescribed Potent Antiretroviral Therapy” because the standard for determining which combinations of drugs could be considered “potent” is not described in adequate detail, and the need to assess viral genotype in choosing therapies is not mentioned.

Date Reviewed: July 26, 2014