END-OF-LIFE PATIENT EDUCATION BROCHURES
FREE -- AVAILABLE FROM ACP

Under the auspices of the American College of Physicians, a working group of physicians and patient advocates has developed a set of informational materials for patients nearing the end of life. The brochures are intended for distribution in doctors’ offices.

The Patient Education and Caring: End-of-Life (PEACE) Series offers 3 educational brochures to guide patients and caregivers through various stages of palliative and end-of-life care. The brochures come in packages of 50 each and include a “tip sheet” for physicians to set the stage for discussions with patients about end-of-life matters.

Please send your request for PEACE materials to: ACP Center for Ethics and Professionalism (215-351-2839), 190 N. Independence Mall West, Philadelphia PA 19106-1572, or fax to 215-351-2524. (An invoice will be included with shipment to cover postage costs.)
