

Figures Checklist

- The figure is necessary to understand the presentation.
- The title is brief but explanatory.
- The figure is simple and free of extraneous detail.
- All abbreviations and symbols are explained.
- The figure is easy to read from the back of the room.
- The figure is mentioned in the presentation.
- The style for all figures is consistent throughout the presentation.