Fostering Excellence in Internal Medicine
This live activity has been designated for 13.5 CME credits and 13.5 MOC points. An additional 2 CME credits can be obtained by attending the SEP session.
Dear Colleague,

Join us and your colleagues in internal medicine at the next scientific meeting of the Alabama and Mississippi Chapters of the American College of Physicians, being held May 31 to June 2, 2019, at the School of Medicine, University of Mississippi Medical Center, Jackson, Mississippi.

The meeting is a great way for you to recharge, rewind, and reflect with your peers, chapter leaders, and great speakers. Connect with the Alabama and Mississippi Chapters’ rich source of knowledge content and networking by attending our premier meeting for general internists, subspecialty internists, hospitalists, allied health practitioners, residents, and medical students.

In addition to earning CME credits, this conference is about making personal contacts and getting involved in your chapter. You’ll engage with people who know your challenges and can help you find solutions. The opportunities available at this meeting will help you meet not only your needs as a physician but also the needs of the patients you serve.

To ensure your place at this invaluable meeting, register now by visiting us online at mschapter.acponline.org or alchapter.acponline.org.

We look forward to seeing you in Jackson, Mississippi.

Sincerely,

S. Calvin Thigpen, MD, FACP
ACP Governor, Mississippi Chapter

William Curry, MD, MACP
ACP Governor-Elect, Alabama Chapter

- Allied health practitioners
- Residents
- Medical students interested in internal medicine

CME Accreditation and MOC Points
The American College of Physicians (ACP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The ACP designates each live activity for the number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ listed below. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The Alabama-Mississippi Chapters Scientific Meeting for a maximum of 13.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™.

The SEP modules post-course, for a maximum of 2 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™.

Successful completion of this CME activity (the Alabama-Mississippi Chapter Scientific Meeting), which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 13.5 medical knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine’s (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider’s responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Resident/Fellow Members’ and Medical Students’ Activities
Clinical vignettes and posters prepared by Resident/Fellow Members and Medical Students will be presented at the meeting. Winners will be eligible to enter the national competition held during Internal Medicine 2020. Participants from the Alabama Chapter should contact Starr Steinhilber at ssteinhilber@uab.edu for information about entering the Resident/Fellow Members’ and Medical Students’ competition. Participants from the Mississippi Chapter should contact Jessie Lavender at jlavender@umc.edu. The deadline for submissions is March 8, 2019.

There will also be a financial wellness session and Ultrasound Workshop that will be specifically targeted for Resident/Fellow and Medical Student Members.

Early Career Physicians’ Activities
There will be an abstract competition for Early Career Physicians and one session led by the Chair of the Council of Early Career Physicians about the role of Early Career Physicians in the ACP.
